

Teresa Weissbach (voc) & John R. Carlson (piano)

In the CROCODILE Bar

Charming, wicked and intoxicating:
Teresa Weissbach takes us on a musical journey back to the Golden 20ies and 30ies. She plays the fun-loving songstress Lola who gets entangled in the turbulences of her era.

Blond hair, endless legs, thrilling voice:
Renowned actress Teresa Weissbach proves to be a jack of all trades, performing passionate songs about love and life with vital force.

An extraordinary musical journey into the glamorous Golden
20ies and 30ies

Champagne, cigar and top hat:
The spirit of Marlene Dietrich is being revived on stage.
A show as sophisticated as it is touching captivates the audience.

Teresa Weissbach is accompanied by the gifted American pianist and dancer, John R. Carlson.
